

Linux drivers

The Linux package (Linux driver and control panel) are distributed in the hope that it will be useful but WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY: without even the implied warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose.

There is no technical support for this Linux package, neither through the hot line or the email service.

There are separate packages for the drivers and the control panel.

The drivers and the control panel have been tested on (x86 and x86-64 platforms):

- Ubuntu 8.10
- Mandriva 2009
- Mint 6
- Fedora 10 (drivers: you must install the kernel symbols from the package manager)
- OpenSuse 8.11 (drivers: you must install dkms manually from DELL website, and kernel symbols from the package manager).

Kernel Module:

Description:

The `hdj_mod` kernel module currently supports the following Hercules DJ controller:

- Hercules DJ Console Rmx
- Hercules DJ Control Steel,
- Hercules DJ Console Mk2,
- Hercules DJ Control MP3.

Files:

`hdjmod-dkms_1.28_all.deb`
`hdjmod-dkms-1.28-1.noarch.rpm`

Install Notes:

1) Fedora 10:

- Kernel symbols must be installed from the package manager before the kernel module package is installed

2) OpenSuse 11.1:

- Kernel symbols must be installed from the package manager before the kernel module package is installed.

- DKMS must be installed prior to the kernel module installation. DKMS can be downloaded from the DELL website (<http://linux.dell.com/dkms/>)

3) In general, the distribution should be set up in order to compile kernel modules (Notes 1 and 2 above ensure this for Fedora and OpenSuse, and the other cited distributions should be immediately ready).

Control Panel:

Description:

Hercules DJ Control Panel let you control the hardware settings of :

- Hercules DJ Console Rmx
- Hercules DJ Control Steel,

- Hercules DJ Console Mk2,
- Hercules DJ Control MP3.

Note:

The driver package must to be installed prior to installing the control panel Debian or RPM (x86 and x86-64) package. The source can be downloaded separately.
